Beneficiary details

Where the policy owner and life insured are not the same person, in the event of the death of the life insured the benefit will be paid to the policy owner. However if beneficiaries are nominated and the life insured and policy owner are not the same then the proceeds will be paid to the beneficiaries and not the policy owner. You can choose who and how your death benefit is paid in the event of the death of the person to be insured. 'You' refers to the Policy owner(s) (ie the person who has the authority to decide how the benefit is dispersed).

Please nominate between one and five people to receive the payment of benefits in the table below.

	Full name, address and phone number(s) of nominated person(s)	Gender		Date of birth	% of death benefit*	Relationship of the nominated person to the Plan owner(s)
		M	F

4		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	/ /	%

* Percentages must be whole numbers, eg 33% NOT 33.33%.
