Who can certify customer ID documents?

Under the AML/CTF requirements the following 'authorised individuals' are able to certify documents:

- 1 a person who is enrolled on the roll of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory, or the High Court of Australia, as a legal practitioner (however described)
- 2 a judge of a court
- 3 a magistrate
- 4 a chief executive officer of a Commonwealth court
- 5 a registrar or deputy registrar of a court
- 6 a Justice of the Peace
- 7 a notary public (for the purposes of the Statutory Declarations Regulations 1993)
- 8 a police officer
- 9 an agent of the Australian Postal Corporation who is in charge of an office supplying postal services to the public
- 10 a permanent employee of the Australian Postal Corporation with two or more years of continuous service who is employed in an office supplying postal services to the public
- 11 an Australian consular officer or an Australian diplomatic officer (within the meaning of the Consular Fees Act 1955)
- 12 an officer with two or more continuous years of service with one or more financial institutions (for the purposes of the Statutory Declaration Regulations 1993)
- 13 a finance company officer with two or more continuous years of service with one or more finance companies (for the purposes of the Statutory Declaration Regulations 1993)
- 14 an officer with, or authorised representative of, a holder of an Australian financial services licence, having two or more continuous years of service with one or more licensees, and
- 15 a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia, CPA Australia or the National Institute of Accountants with two or more years of continuous membership.

When certifying documents, the following process must be followed:

- All copied pages of original documents must be certified.
- The authorised individual must ensure that the original and the copy are identical; then write or stamp on the copied document 'certified true copy'. This must be followed by the date and signature, printed name and qualification of the authorised individual.
- In cases where an extract of a document is photocopied to verify customer ID, the authorised individual should write or stamp 'certified true extract'.

Have you changed your name or are you signing on behalf of another person?

If you have changed your name or are signing on behalf of the applicant, you will need to provide a linking document. A linking document is a document that proves a relationship exists between two (or more) names.

All copied pages of original documents need to be certified as true copies by any individual approved to do so.

The following table contains information about suitable linking documents.

Purpose	Suitable linking documents
Change of name	Certified copy of Marriage certificate, deed poll or change of name certificate from the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Office.
Signed on behalf of the applicant	Certified copy of guardianship papers or Power of Attorney.
