

news release

www.axa.com.au

For release: Thursday, 1st December 2005

Steven Davison to manage AXA Financial Advice Network's GROW initiative

This month, the AXA Financial Advice Network (FAN) will release AXA GROW, a business growth solution that will assist owners of financial advice businesses manage their business growth and succession plans to maximise shareholder value and better control owner retirement.

AXA GROW will provide an integrated suite of services that includes consulting, funding, business management, due diligence and integration assistance.

Mr. Steven Davison, previously AXA Distribution Planning Manager, has been appointed National Manager GROW and will be responsible for the launch and on going management this initiative.

Mr. Davison has been with AXA for nine years and his previous roles include:

- responsibility for Projects and Strategy within the AXA Financial Advice Network;
- managing the development and delivery of AXA Asia Pacific's Strategic Plan to the Group CEO;
- business analyst support for AXA's Merger, Acquisitions and Divestments initiatives; and
- business development roles.

Prior to joining AXA, Mr. Davison operated his own retail business in the surf leisure and sporting industry.

Mr. Davison holds a Bachelor of Business (Accounting) and Graduate Diploma of Applied Finance and Investment from the Securities Institute and Masters of Business Administration from AGSM.

Issued by: AXA

Media enquiries: Mr. Joe Perri Telephone: 0412 112 545

